HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his establishment
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. B. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

DISPATCHES TO THE MORNING OREGONIAN

DATES TO APRIL 21.

Postal Matters.

CHICAGO, April 21.—A special to the Chicago Post says the Postmaster General agrees to establish a free delivery for San Francisco as soon as an agent can get there and put it in operation. The carriers will be paid $1,200 annually.

Paul Merrill Jr. is appointed resident Postal agent on the Central Pacific railroad.

It Rand is removed, Wm. G. Moore will be appointed Marshal instead of Hudson, heretofore designated for that place by the President. Sergent, Stewart, Gorham and Billy Carr are fighting for Pixley.

Condition of the Treasury.

A Tribune special says the condition of the Treasury is regarded as very gratifying. The receipts from Internal Revenue and Customs are considerably in advance of last year. The estimates are $850,000,000, while the receipts to date are $10,000,000. The receipts for the remainder of the fiscal year is $12,000,000. The receipts cannot be less than $50,000,000, which makes an aggregate of at least $10,000,000, or $12,000,000 in excess of Wells' estimate. [This dispatch is beyond our power to put in comprehensible shape. Editors Union.]

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided not to allow the National banks to make an exchange of bonds deposited as security for circulation.

Appointments held in Abeyance.

The nomination of Hartwright, Minister to Venezuela; Baxter for Honduras, Delano for the Sandwich Islands, Hurlburt for Bolivia, Shellabarger for Portugal, have not been decided upon by the Foreign Relations Committee. The Indian appointments will probably go over till next week. The probabilities are that the whole country, from Texas to British America, will be filled with Quaker agents.

Gen Burbridge was discharged from arrest yesterday, owing to some informality in the warrants.

A Late Appointee Removed.

The President yesterday removed one of his own appointees, Cox of Pennsylvania, who had been confirmed as Consul to Leghorn. A telegram from Philadelphia said Cox had been arrested for stealing, so the President removed him, and appointed Howard, another Pennsylvania man.

A Disgusted Admiral.

A Times special says that Admiral Porter was so disgusted with the charge that he is running the Navy Department, that he proposed to withdraw entirely from the Department, but Secretary Borie begged him to stay.

From Cuba.

Cuban representatives here profess to have information that the Governments of Mexico and Bogata have decided to recognize the independence of Cuba. They declare that when this is officially made known they will demand that our Government shall do likewise.

The Quakers Start Out to see "Lo."

The Quakers left for the Plains today to examine into the condition of the Indians and take measures to effect peace this summer. This movement is looked upon with considerable amusement.

Decoration of Soldiers' Graves.

Gen. Logan, Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, recommends the decoration of the graves of the Union soldiers on May 30th.

The Soldiers' Bounty Bill.

The New York Sun says Senator Wilson's bill providing that the holders of bounties shall be paid by pension agents, was never acted on in the Senate in the amended form in which it came from the House, but was signed by the President under the impression that it had passed the Senate.

Our Relations with Spain.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The Herald's special says the Spanish Minister called on Secretary Fish and demanded a proclamation against filibustering. The Secretary promptly declined, saying that as the insurgents had a provisional Government, he saw no reason for hindering persons from taking up arms in their service. The Spanish Minister, some days ago, promised full reparation for the insults to our flag. Yesterday he informed Secretary Fish that he had not heard from his Government, when the Secretary informed him that trouble would ensue, unless an answer is forthcoming soon.

The New Dominion.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The Tribune's special says the people of the New Dominion have cut loose from dependence on the mother country, and received a powerful impetus from one or two great events. Whatever course may finally be adopted there can be little doubt that a great local change of some sort is not far distant. Several private meetings of influential persons have recently been held here, for the purpose of considering the question of a change in the form of government. There is a general dissatisfaction with the existing state of things, and the more openly expressed opinions now show that the people are at last beginning to meet the question face to face, giving utterance to a feeling which has long been widely disseminated among the people, although they have had no chance to express it publicly. He says: A party is in favor of independence, but a large party, he believes, aims at annexation to the United States and will soon make itself prominent. The acquisition of the Hudson Bay Company's locality has given additional force to the arguments of the annexationists, who feel that such a magnificent domain as the New Dominion promises to be ought no longer to be dwarfed and kept down by a dependence on a trans Atlantic Government.

The New York Forgery Case.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Justice Dowling commenced yesterday the examination in the case of the late forgery on Jay Cooke & Co., by which $26,000 was obtained from a noted bank of New York State. Affidavits were admitted by the Assistant Cashier of Jay Cooke & Co., and the Jay Cooke teller of the bank, declaring the checks forgeries.

Libel Suit in Prospect.

A Brooklyn special says Senator Fenton will sue the Commercial Advertiser and Evening Post for libel, laying his damages at half a million dollars.

Miscellaneous.

The steamer Arizona brings Panama dates to the 13th. No news.

WORCESTER, Mass., 21.—A convention of the Knights of St. Crispin of the United States and Canada was largely attended yesterday. They looked to unity and action on the part of the various orders.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Reports of damages from the storm continue to be received. But two or three fatal casualties are reported, but much property destroyed.

The burning of the asylum for the blind at Jacksonville, Illinois, will probably necessitate a special session of the Legislature to make arrangements for the care of those unfortunates who are now distributed among families in Jacksonville. No clue to the origin of the fire is known. When first discovered, the whole upper portion of the building was in flames.

MEMPHIS, April 21.—A train on the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad ran through a trestle yesterday near Dresden, killing the engineer and fireman. Several passengers were severely injured. About the same hour a train on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, ran through a trestle near Trenton, killing the engineer and two passengers. Names unknown. The latter were riding on the engine. The storm had washed away the trestle.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 21.—John L. Ketchum, a prominent attorney of this city, died last night from the effect of injuries received by a fall through a hatchway.

BUFFALO, April 21.—A large portion of the track of the great Western railroad is under water and express trains are obliged to return.

A Speck of War—Sensations.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The Herald's London special says it is understood here that the American Minister, in accordance with instructions from the United States Government, to-day made a formal demand on Lord Clarendon, Foreign Secretary, asking explanations in relation to the case of the American ship Mary Lowell, captured by a Spanish war frigate off the Bahama Islands, while in charge of British revenue officials, with the seal of the revenue department on her hatches. This fact, in connection with the reported increase of the Spanish navy and fleet of the West Indies creates much sensation in circles of the city. It is thought it will very much affect the new Spanish loan now about to be put on the market.

The special says Great Britain shall surrender her North American possessions as a set off against the Alabama claims has created a deep sensation in official circles. Many regard it with decided favor. Sumner's speech was copied by both the English and French journals in full, and is the [illegible]

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

MADRID, April 20.—Minister Figuerala proposes to reform the system of prohibition by doing away with it after six years, by gradually reducing the duties. He recommends that the amount of the duties be fixed by law at six hundred millions. He proposes that salt and tobacco monopolies shall be abolished in 1870.

PARIS, April 20.—In the Corps Legislatif yesterday, a discussion occurred concerning the reduction of the duty on brandies exported to the United States. Reduction of present rates of duty was urged on the ground that such a change will be favorable to French commercial and American financial interests.

BERLIN, April 20.—A meeting of the Federal Council of the Zollverein is called for April 28th.

FLORENCE, April 21.—The Italian Budget is very satisfactory, the income reaching the expenses. It has been decided consequently, that it is not necessary to impose any new tax the present year.

MILAN, Italy, April 21.—The government has discovered another formidable Mazzinian conspiracy in this city. Papers concealed by the revolutionists giving details of an organization were unearthed and seized, with a large amount of arms and ammunition. A number of leaders were arrested.

IDAHO

The Statesman of the 15th says: Appearances are that the mining season in Boise county will be short this year. There was not the usual quantity of snow, and what there was has melted rapidly during the month of March. The fall of snow throughout the northern part of the territory has been unusually light.

The Boise Democrat of the 14th says: A letter from C. F. Powell, Indian Agent, received by Mr. T. Ayres, says that he had allowed some of the Indians to go on a fishing excursion and they had not returned. The privilege was granted supposing that they would return the same evening, but as they did not, some fears are entertained that they have started on the war path. Governor Ballard started out to the reservation on Saturday to see about it.

W. T. Democratic Convention.

VANCOUVER, April 22, 1869.

The Democrats are in trouble. They have counted largely on the dissensions which they predicted would occur in the Republican Convention, in case Garfielde were nominated. But their hopes have deceived them. Their confidence was misplaced. The pledges of hearty support with which the Republicans of the Territory, and of this place are responding to Mr Garfielde's nomination, and the harmony, good feeling and entire unanimity which characterized the Republican Convention, a presage another victory to the banner of the Union party, and another defeat to the Democracy. They have suffered defeat so often in this Territory that they take things with the resignation of despair. The love of office is strong in the Convention, if it's nothing more than the honor of being a candidate. This is evinced by the numerous candidates who are presented, or who present themselves, before the Convention.

Fitz, and perhaps one of the most prominent names before the Convention is that of Gen. M. F. Moore. Those of the party who are anxious for success with any one, and that small remnant of the Democratic party who prefer loyalty to treason, liberty to slavery, the Union to secession, and right to wrong, are urging Gen. Moore's claims. But I predict he will not be nominated. He carries in his body the lead which he received from those true Democrats, the Southern rebels, while he was fighting for the Union, the Constitution and Liberty, and that damns him with the Democratic party. No matter how low he may come down on his marrow bones to their doctrines now, the stains as they deem it, of having been a Union soldier, makes his defeat certain.

Judge McFadden is perhaps the next most prominent man. He is an old line Democrat, who has been a long while resident here, but whose chief qualification for delegate consists in his record of being true to the Democratic party. If I were to make a guess, as to who would be the nominee, I would select his name.

Next comes the "sage from Lewis River," Judge Lancaster. He has three counties to support him, and will, as usual, be beaten before the Convention. The Judge was a delegate from this Territory many years ago for one term, and he and his friends have forgotten the old but true adage, that "lightning never strikes twice in the same place."

Walla Walla county is modest. It presents only six aspirants for the nomination, five of whom are delegates. They are B. L. Sharpstein, J. D. Mix, J. H. Lansater, F. P. Dugan, J. E. Wyche and W. H. Newell. Two years ago Judge Wyche was a prominent aspirant before the Republican Convention. Being defeated then, he has turned over, "body, boots and breeches," to the Democracy, and is now fawning to them for a nomination. The others, except Newell, are lawyers and old line Democrats, who are strongly imbued with that Democratic doctrine, self-sacrifice for the good of their constituents by serving them in office.

Frank Clark, the "orphan boy," who was nominated two years ago, would serve if the people desire it.

The Convention was called to order by J. P. Dugan, when J. H. Lansater was elected temporary chairman, J. Miller Murphy and A. J. Kane, temporary Secretaries.

A committee consisting of Frost Mix, Bracee Ostrander and Borgmyer, was appointed on credentials, who reported the names of delegates, with a suggestion that the Convention of the question as to whether Dr. R. Robertson, who has lately had some dealings with Justice Bell and his constable, could transfer votes which he held by proxy. It appeared that Dr. Robertson was kept away from the Convention by "unfortuitous circumstances." What those "unfortuitous circumstances" were, was not stated. After a discussion on the principles of parliamentary law, indulged in by various members, whose views would doubtless do much to enlighten the author of Cushing's Manual, it was finally decided to admit the proxies.

A motion was made to admit Mr Simmons to cast the vote of Klickitat county. This raised a question as to Mr Simmons's loyalty to Democracy. Simmons said he never had voted any other than the Democratic ticket and never expected to vote any other. But he was required to undergo a still further examination and to pledge himself to support the nominees, and then he was admitted.

Mr. Frost raised a question as to whether Struve he [illegible] in Pacific county. This caused quite a little breeze, when Struve appeared before the Convention and stated that he had received a letter from a Republican in Pacific county requesting him (Struve) to act in the Republican Convention, and at the same time said the Democrats wanted Mr. Potter to act in the Democratic Convention. This was probably caused by the matter of the Democrats not being able to get credentials. A motion was made to allow Mr. Potter to cast the vote. The Democratic Convention, using Potter made a motion to allow Randolph of the Democrats to cast the vote. This raised a question as to the propriety of the two which resulted in giving Potter the vote.

The temporary organization was made permanent. Committee on Order of Business, W. H. Newell, Lewis Van Vleet, James L. Ingmyer. Executive Committee, Dr. Chandler, were appointed. Committee on Resolutions, J. L. Sharpstein, J. D. Potter, Frank Clarke, H. Butler, Capt. Swift and J. B. May.

The Convention took a recess to 3 o'clock.

A Salmon letter says: We have had a distinguished American in the Bankruptcy Court this week—no other than the Confederate General Ripley, for whom it was claimed during the hearing of the case, that he was "the man who fired the first gun at Fort Sumter." Whether this produced a sympathy on the part of the judge or not, he was certainly treated very kindly, and released from custody. His debts were stated at about $150,000.

THE EAST

"From Ocean to Ocean, no Transfer," is the legend painted on a lot of freight cars now building in Illinois.

The license list shows that Chicago supports 127 hacks, 1,050 express wagons, 1,500 double teams, and 700 drays.

Gen Hancock denies the truth of the story that shortly after the Tammany convention he "cut" General Grant by refusing to return his greeting.

The Seventh Regiment monument now under process of construction in New York will cost between forty five and fifty thousand dollars. The design is said to be beautiful.

The Erie and Niagara Extension Railroad Company, and the Erie and Niagara Railroad Company propose to build a bridge across, or tunnel under the Niagara river, at or near Fort Erie.

About seventy thousand Odd Fellows are expected to participate in the semi-centennial anniversary of the establishment of the Order which is to be held in Philadelphia on the 26th inst.

Governor Palmer has ordered a special election in the Third Illinois Congressional District on the eighth day of June, to fill the vacancy occasioned by Mr. Washburne's resignation. Candidates have not yet taken their places for the race.

A bill is before the New York Legislature which will increase the salary of the Sheriff of New York to twenty thousand dollars a year. A very comfortable position, especially in view of the fact that the Sheriff generally manages to realize nearly twice as much as the salary of President out of the office under the present law.

Trouble is apprehended between the American and Canadian fisherman plying their vocation in the waters of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, Bay Chaleur, and the Bay of Fundy. The Canadians assert that the Americans are encroaching upon their rights. Already the belligerents fish with revolvers in dangerous proximity to each other's faces.

Mr. J. Milton Smith is already making preparations for his next National Horse Fair, which is to be held this year at Geneva, Ill., from July 1st to the 4th. This will be the seventeenth of these exhibitions which have taken place under Mr. Smith's management, all of which have been highly successful, and resulted in attracting immense crowds of people.

First Assistant Postmaster General Earle was a former law partner of the Postmaster General, is a son of Judge Earle, formerly of the Supreme Court of Maryland, was a member of the Free State Constitutional Convention which abolished slavery, and afterward Clerk of the Court of Appeals. He is a gentleman not only of decided executive ability, but of much culture, and would do honor to a position.

The weather in the Northwest for the month of January is thus summed up by the Agricultural Bureau: "In Wisconsin, along the lake shore little snow—in the Western part of the State more than usual—weather pleasant. In Illinois it was the most pleasant January for many years. In Minnesota the finest January for thirteen years, clear nearly all the time. Ground frozen three feet deep. Kansas, warmest January ever known in the State. Ohio, warmest January for fourteen years. In Michigan few, even of the oldest settlers, remember so warm a January. Roads generally good. But little sleighing. In the Northern Peninsula less snow than usual."

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

ORDINANCES.

Ordinance to established the grade on Sixth [illegible] at its intersection with Montgomery, read three times; rule suspended, ordinance read third time and passed.

Ordinance adopting the report of the City Surveyor in the matter of the extension of Stark [illegible] read twice; rule suspended, read third time and passed.

Ordinance to authorize the committee on ways and means to contract for the city printing, read three times and laid over under the rule.

Ordinance authorizing the purchase of a site for an engine house for Protection Engine Co. No. [illegible] at a cost not exceeding $2,500, read a third time and passed.

On motion, adjourned.

THE SURVEY.—The people of the Oregon are almost as thoroughly roused upon the subject of railroads as they can well be. Speculations are rife as to routes and terminations. Town sites are being laid out on proposed routes, and lands heretofore held [illegible] are rapidly advancing in price. Doubtless many of these projected enterprises will come to an untimely end and many people who dream of "riding in a car from their own doors will travel otherwise than in long boxes; but others will doubtless be carried out to the upbuilding of our country [illegible] is of a great, populous and wealthy state.

The rest we learn that a reconnoissance for a railroad route from that place to Canby place, below Mt. [illegible] has been recently made by Mr. Fry, a distance, by a direct line the whole distance, no deep [illegible] gs over Scappoose creek, a grade of [illegible] feet in a mile in the worst places, runs [illegible] laid all the way along the base of the hills [illegible]. These are the particular results, as some parties interested in the proposed road [illegible] the region. We also learn that aside from [illegible] the advantages to the lands through [illegible] and to the new town at the termini [illegible] are looking to the extension of the road to Puget Sound by crossing the [illegible] point than can be found above that [illegible] line to Astoria is among the possibilities [illegible] near future. The closing of the Columbia [illegible] effectually secured, may force the construction stretching to the sea, to command [illegible] world, in spite of the interruption [illegible].

THE COLLEEN BAWN.—The Colleen Bawn was produced last night to a crowded house, on the occasion of a benefit to Mr. W[illegible]h, who appeared in the characters of Myles and Danny Mann. We have no [illegible] saying that Mr. Wheatleigh has, on no occasion appeared in characters to which he did more [illegible] justice, and yet his [illegible] ception of two characters [illegible] upon the performance, inasmuch as it necessitated [illegible] and walks where there should not [illegible] lost. Aside from this, we can find [illegible] fault with the entire rendition of the piece. [illegible] frequent enthusiastic applause presented during the entire season. At the close of the curtain there was a general call for [illegible], who appeared in front and very gracefully [illegible] the compliment. The Colleen Bawn was [illegible] sustained by Mr. Bates and Mr. Vinton, Mr. [illegible] by his personation of Father [illegible] character was well sustained—Miss [illegible] as "Mrs. Cregan;" Miss Cummings, [illegible]," E. N. Thayer, "Carl, Daly," and [illegible] Gardener." The afterpiece, entitled "The [illegible]" was a very good farce, in which some of [illegible] were extremely laughable. The same bill [illegible] to-night.

—The Columbia has risen a few inches and [illegible] a few feet during the past week.

[illegible] was arrested on Front street at a late hour [illegible] last, and after some hostile demonstrations [illegible] calling on her part, and extra exertion on the [illegible] officer, she was safely housed in the calaboose. [illegible] rum, bad whiskey.

[illegible] cattle were shipped on the Cascade [illegible] for the country east of the mountains. [illegible] are being already shipped from Oregon [illegible]. The Almatia will take a number of [illegible] her next trip.

[illegible] small son of Mr. Doscher, living below [illegible] fell on the head by a horse and severely [illegible]. The child was cared for by Dr. Chapman, and [illegible] is doing as well as could be expected. [illegible] yesterday was fair, the air cool and bracing, [illegible] body seemed to feel very well.

FARMER.—The Farmer says: The Oregonian is supposing that the type upon which the City Enterprise has been printed, was the old [illegible] of twenty years ago. The type in question was purchased in San Francisco in 1858, and [illegible] on the Argus of that year—while the original [illegible] type was destroyed years since, D. W. Craig [illegible] over three hundred pounds of it to the foundry in City. Part of that sold by Mr. Ireland, [illegible] day, was formerly used in the Republican at [illegible], which paper was afterward united with the [illegible]. We speak of "body" type only, as several fonts of "[illegible] letter, on the original Spectator dress case [illegible] in the columns of the Enterprise. The press [illegible] Spectator was printed, is now in use in [illegible] office at Roseburg. It is a No. 2 Washington [illegible] of Hoe & Co's manufacture, and was, when [illegible] two years since, apparently as good as new.

[illegible].—Not political platforms, for they are too [illegible] to be in the way of anybody for a great while, [illegible] erected for the convenience of our merchants [illegible] carrying goods in and out of their stores, have been the subject of some attention on the part of our city [illegible] for a few days past. One firm refused to [illegible] and the matter was tried before His Honor, [illegible] yesterday, by a jury, and a conviction obtained, upon Judge Risley imposed a fine of $5 and costs. We have heard that the Street Commissioner has [illegible] some by parties who deem a "delay of the [illegible] everybody ought to know that he has his duties [illegible] and is not a maker of ordinances for our city [illegible] but only an executive officer to see that [illegible] to obstructions, etc., in the streets, are [illegible]. We believe he intends to do his duty in [illegible], but that he will give parties no unnecessary [illegible].

[illegible]NTS.—The steamship Orifiamme sailed from [illegible] at one o'clock P. M. on an excursion [illegible] Sound country and Victoria, carrying a [illegible] of guests invited by Ben. Holladay to join [illegible] trip. The excursion will occupy about ten [illegible] for a short time at various points on the [illegible] it is rumored that Holladay will locate the [illegible] terminus of the Oregon Central Railroad, [illegible] trip. The Aurora Band accompanied the [illegible], and as the steamer passed up and down [illegible] on her departure the swelling strains of music, [illegible] cannon and flying flags betokened the joyous [illegible] of the elegant expedition. Many of the elite of the [illegible] were on board and a general good time is expected [illegible] the gay crowd the most eminent success, and [illegible] of them will bring us back a little deed to some [illegible] eligible town lots at the "terminus."

[illegible] INVENTION.—A patent harness buckle invented by [illegible] W. Rowland, of Salem, was shown us, yesterday, [illegible] which is quite simple in its mechanism, but is bound [illegible] be a great acquisition to all who use harness. It [illegible] is of a sliding clasp, the sides of which are concave, [illegible] and hold the tug firmly by the insertion of a [illegible] between the straps. It is easily worked and can [illegible] be used to adjust the tugs to any desired length. Mr. [illegible] at No. 92 Front street, has purchased the patent right for this State, and is now getting up a large number [illegible] with these buckles. Orders are coming in faster [illegible] he can fill them, as he sells the harness at the same [illegible] asked for the old fashioned.

DELINQUENTS.—The day of grace for delinquent city taxes has expired, and as soon as the Treasurer can [illegible] out the list of those who have not paid preparatory [illegible] making the property on which taxes are due, the [illegible] will proceed to make a levy upon all such property, and after the regular notice, it will be sold pursuant to law. The time given has been sufficient, but [illegible] there is quite a large amount of this tax yet unpaid. [illegible] Marshal will likely make peremptory demands for [illegible] same at a very early day. Meet him good-naturedly [illegible] and he will do the fair thing.

POLITICAL.—We call attention of the citizens of Washington Territory to the notice of the Union Republican [illegible] found elsewhere. The nominee is conceded to be one of the ablest speakers on the Pacific coast, and we [illegible] that he will "make it very warm" for the Democracy of the adjoining Territory.

WILL SAIL.—The Telfair and Wright will sail for Victoria to-morrow, from this port.

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 22, 1869.

Wants to Know

The Herald of yesterday morning manifested a praiseworthy desire for information. Information is a handy thing to have in the family, and we are surprised that our cotemporary should have undertaken housekeeping with so limited a stock on hand. For instance, the Herald wants to be informed "how Texas came to be without a constitution or a legitimate civil government?" Now, really, for the sake of editorial reputation in general, we heartily regret that our journalistic brother did not come and ask that question in our private car, instead of rushing into print with it. There was no urgent necessity that we can discover, for such an exposure of ignorance, and, don't you see, it lets the profession down to be asking such easy questions in such a noisy way. Beside, while we have no objection to undertaking the role of private instructor, and spending as much time as would enable our cotemporary to make a respectable display of information, we greatly fear that our readers would scarcely pardon us, if we were to devote our columns to the [illegible] of one person upon matters with which everybody else is perfectly familiar. We have been wondering all day if our cotemporary has not yet heard that the people of Texas once upon a time rebelled against the Ok[illegible] at [illegible] of secession, annulled their constitution as it existed in connection with the United States Government, and set up for themselves as a State under the foreign government of the Confederate States of America. He really ought to have learned that much by accident, even if he had never sought to know what was going on in this wicked world. Knowing that much, he would have been led on by easy lessons to know that constitutions once destroyed don't grow like "[illegible] weeds" wherever there may be a vacant inch of soil, and that they are not kept ready made at the knicknack shops. What [illegible] Why, if the people of Texas want a constitution again erecting their domain into a State of the United States, they must go about it in the usual constitutional way to do it—one and submit it in the usual way to the other party to the compact for ratification. We tremble with apprehension, lest our cotemporary will next ask whether the people of Texas have done anything of this sort, and to facilitate the inquiry, we will furnish the information in advance, that the job has not yet been entirely completed. And now is how it comes that Texas is without a constitution or a legitimate civil government. To put it in short and easy form, so that our sadly uninformed cotemporary can understand it: the people of Texas squelched the old one and have not yet secured a new one. This is perhaps as long a lesson as primary a learner can manage in one day, and so, school's dismissed. We will add, however, as an instance of our disinterestedness of heart, that our cotemporary is welcome to use the information he has gained in any way that will assist him to [illegible] of respectable information.

Mr. Garfielde Nominated.

The Republican Convention at Vancouver, [illegible] for Congress Hon. S. [illegible] by acclamation. We had for some [illegible] and this nomination a foregone [illegible] and [illegible] all the circumstances it is [illegible] the best choice that could have been made. Mr. Garfielde is a man of ener[illegible], and will enter the canvass with [illegible] over any candidate who may be put [illegible] him by the Democracy. The [illegible] with which he was nominated [illegible] an united and zealous support by the [illegible] gth of the Republican party of the Territory. Such support should be [illegible] him, and we trust that even those who [illegible] other candidates will [illegible] at once to the work of electing him. It can be done by concerted action. The Republicans of Washington Territory have a majority of two hundred or more votes, if they can all be brought out. The people should not, with this Republican strength, [illegible] Territory to lapse back into the [illegible] of the Democracy. If they do they will [illegible] to be as feebly represented in the [illegible] of Representatives as Oregon is and will be the next two years. We understand that Mr. Garfielde will enter at once upon a [illegible] canvass of the Territory. Let every Republican back him up with a willing, steady and strong support.

Small Notes.

Some one has humorously but truthfully said that "the great want of most large cities is about thirty-five first class funerals per day.

A private telegram from Washington dated yesterday announces that all the Oregon appointments have been made and confirmed except the Indian agent for Umatilla.

A Washington letter says the members of the Cabinet are so hard at work that they can scarcely get time to look after their domestic concerns. On the 31st ult. none of them had become regularly domiciled.

An Eastern exchange says: "That was a cruel thing the Chicago Tribune did the other day in publishing A. J.'s obituary, in the face of A. J.'s positive assertion, 'I still live.' In point of fact it might be termed the refinement of cruelty." Another exchange says that many of the newspapers continued to publish obituary notices of Andy, for several days after his reported death was contradicted, on the ground that he was such an inveterate liar that he couldn't be believed, even in so grave a matter.

The "nigger" seems to be getting along well with the Democracy in Minnesota. In a late trial in that State, the prisoner was a negro; five of the jurors were negroes, and everything went off as though everybody was white. The St. Paul Pioneer says: "It is a noticeable fact that the first colored jurymen that acted in the State were summoned by a Democratic Sheriff, in a Democratic county and a Democratic city, in a court presided over by a Democratic Judge, and where the county prosecutor was a Democrat."

The Herald, in its pursuit of knowledge, asks if the course Congress has pursued toward the Southern States can be justified by any clause or provision in our Constitution, by any principle of common humanity, or is it anything but the revel of the robber in the house of the despoiled citizen?" O, the poor lambs of the South! The innocent things that "never didn't do nothink!" Now that we think of it, our philanthropic heart does bleed profusely at the wrongs of these chivalric gentlemen who only kicked up a genteel row in which only a few hundred thousand men were slain and a few hundred millions of dollars were expended, and who have never received anything for their services, except free pardons! Were people ever so oppressed?

The Territorial Convention.

The Republican Territorial Convention for Washington Territory met at Vancouver, the 21st day of April, according to call of Central Committee, and was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M. by Hon. J. K. Kennedy, Chairman of that committee.

On motion of Mr. Drew, of Kitsap, Hon. I Eldridge, of Whatcom county, was elected temporary Chairman. J. M. Fletcher and S P McDonald were elected temporary Secretaries

A committee of five, consisting of Beach, Cox, Hastings, Stone and Sinclair, was appointed on credentials, whereupon the Convention took a recess for half an hour

At half past one the Convention re-assembled, when the committee on credentials reported the following persons entitled to seats in the Convention

Walla Walla County—A Cox, E. S Kearney, B F Stone, Wm. Stevens, J. D Laman and Jonathan Perryjohn.

Clarke County—S. D Maxon, John F Smith C. C. Stiles and Lewis Leiser.

Yakima and Klickitat Counties—H D Cock

Mason County—C. S. King, ½ vote.

Stevens County—H E. Young

Snohomish County—W B Sanclair

Jefferson County—I. B. Hastings, 1½ votes

Whatcom County—Edward Eldridge.

Clallam County—C M. Bradshaw, proxy

Coelitz County—Byron Barlow.

Pierce County—L. F. Thompson, and I. Carson, proxy, 1½ votes.

Chehalis County—P. D. More, proxy, ½ vote

Thurston County—L. P. Beach, J. C. Ellis and I. Mabie, 2½ votes.

Pacific County—H. G. Struve, proxy.

Wahkiakum County—J. P. Beach, ½ vote

Kitsap County—M. S. Drew, 1½ votes.

Skamania County—J. K. Kennedy, proxy.

Lewis County—Jackson Barton.

In King county, there being a contest, for the sake of harmony all the contestants were admitted, as follows: D. Bagley, L. B. Andrews, D. R. Lord, and J. J. McGilvray, by Lord, proxy.

On motion the report was adopted. The temporary organizations were then made permanent

A committee on Resolutions was then appointed, consisting of Moore, Struve, Kennedy, Maxon and Barton, who retired and after a short absence presented the following as their report

PLATFORM.

1. Resolved, That the principles of the Republican party, as declared by the last National Republican Convention at Chicago, meet with our hearty approval, and, an adherence thereto by the National, State and Territorial Legislatures will secure the peace and prosperity of our country.

2. That we recognise the great principles laid down in the immortal Declaration of Independence as the true foundation of Democratic government; and we hail with gladness every effort toward making these principles a living reality on every inch of American soil.

3. That we regard with great pride and satisfaction the election of the wise, efficient, patriotic and victorious leader of the American Army, General Grant, to the high and honorable position of President of the United States, and confidently rely upon the earnest co-operation of the different branches of the Government for the enactment of such measures as shall secure the rights and liberty of every American citizen upon principles of justice and equality, and that respect for the laws by the people that will insure the peace and progress of the entire country.

4. That the interests of Washington Territory can best be promoted by the election of an able Republican representative of our people as delegate to Congress, who will exert himself to obtain the fostering care and material aid of the general government for our Territory and secure the just rights of each and all of our citizens, and who, as opportunity offers, will make known to the people of the States by public addresses, the great advantages and inducements our Territory presents, to capital and population.

5. That a system of internal improvements in our Territory should receive the encouragement and support of the people and General Government, in order that our important resources may be developed, and the prosperity of the country promoted. Among these internal improvements the construction of the Northern Pacific, Columbia River and Puget Sound, and Walla Walla and Columbia River Railroads, are of great and paramount importance, and their early completion highly necessary for the interests of not only this Territory, but also those of the entire country.

6. That the nominee of this convention can, and by the hearty and united efforts of the Union Republican party WILL be triumphantly elected; and to that end all personal preferences and prejudices should be waived for the general good, and the present as well as the future success of the Republican party and its principles be thereby effectually maintained.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted as a whole.

The convention then proceeded to the nomination of a candidate for a delegate to Congress, voting viva voce,

B. F. Stone, of Walla Walla, nominated Salusius Garfielde. Upon call of the counties Mr. Garfielde received 29 votes, (one being blank,) whereupon he was declared unanimously nominated as the candidate of the Republican party for delegate in Congress.

Mr. Garfielde came forward amid the most enthusiastic cheers and in a neat and eloquent speech accepted the nomination. It was one of his happiest efforts.

The following persons were then chosen as the Territorial Central Committee for the next two years: E. Eldridge (Chairman), P. D. Moore (Secretary), Levi Farnsworth, M. S. Drew, H. D. Cock, J. D. Cook and B. F. Stone.

The delegates from the different districts then presented the following as their nominations for Prosecuting Attorneys: 1st District, E C. Ross; 2d District, A. G. Cook; 3d District, C. M. Bradshaw.

After the usual resolutions of thanks had been passed the convention adjourned sine die.

After the adjournment of the convention, the Central Committee met and chose Vancouver as the place of holding the next meeting.

OREGON.

The farmers of Lane county are talking of forming a County Agricultural Society.

Fifty dollars were last week contributed by ladies of Albany to the Glen Oak Orphans' Home at Salem.

The Linn county Teachers' Institute will hold its next semi-annual session at Albany, on the 4th of next month, to continue three days.

A farmer in Marion county has received from the Eastern States a package of Norway oats and intends to test their adaptability to Oregon climate and soil.

The Albany Fire Company have challenged Capital Engine Co. No. 1, of Salem, to meet them at Albany and have a trial of their engines. The challenge has been accepted by the Salem boys.

The Salem Farmer says: "We stated last week that one hundred miles of iron had been secured for the East Side Railroad. The announcement was made upon rumor, and we are satisfied it is incorrect. It appears that negotiations are pending for the purchase by the contractor of thirty-two miles of English iron, and we suppose this fact gave rise to the report published by us last week."

The Farmer says: Preparations are still going on by members of the Order of Odd Fellows in this city for the anniversary celebration on the 26th—next Monday. Seats will be arranged on Marion Square, for the accommodation of parties during the delivery of the oration and other exercises. In case the weather is not favorable, the oration will be delivered in the Wigwam. From every quarter in the valley, we learn that large delegations, if not the entire membership, of the lodges are coming. The oration of Hon. Nathan Porter, justly ranked ahead of all his brethren on the coast in eloquence, will alone repay them for the trip, and will be alike interesting to those seeking information concerning the Order and to the "initiated."

There is a mineral spring on Molalla prairie, the water of which has been recently analyzed by Dr. Veatch, who compares its properties to those of Saratoga water. He says The samples I had received did not possess the full qualities of the water, owing to imperfect closure of the bottles. The water drunk on the spot, therefore, produced an agreeable surprise from its sparkling properties and very pleasant acid taste. It is, in short, drank on the spot, the most agreeable mineral water I ever tasted It already has some reputation for its healing powers It only requires to be generally known to create a demand for the water, which may be sent abroad in bottles, also, and to make a place of pilgrimage for health seekers, as well.

A NEW WAY.—The Commercial has the following dispatch from Vancouver yesterday:

"GARFIELDE NOMINATED BY 'ACCLIMATION.'

VANCOUVER, April 21

The Republican Convention has adjourned. Mr Garfielde received the nomination by 'acclimation.'"

Webster has a definition thus "Acclimation, the state of being habituated or inured to a climate."

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 21. In the executive session the President pro tem submitted a memorial from the American Emigration Society of London, praying that assistance be granted to persons wishing to emigrate to America.

CHICAGO, April 21. The Post's special says the committee on foreign relations, after long discussion, have agreed to report favorably on Sanford as minister to Spain

Mr. Pile's case was discussed and [illegible] over.

Some more appointments were rejected. A [illegible] was appointed Assessor 1st district Wisconsin in the place of Lloyd Dixon, deceased.

The Senate continued confirmations. E F Chapp, of New York, to Buenos Ayres. Edward Robinson, of New York, to Hamburg. E F. Sheppard, of Ohio, also, Wm Carey Internal Revenue Collectors for Utah, L. P. Snow, for Wyoming.

The Senate has ratified the treaty with France for securing the trade mark of the citizens of the two countries The treaty is similar to that recently ratified with Russia and Belgium

The thermometer yesterday reached 84 degrees

Many Senators believe an adjournment will be reached to night, but this is hardly probable. The President and Cabinet have decided to send in no more business after two o'clock to-day. Of course a large number of appointments will be filled during the recess. It is not likely the Senate will clear its desks of the business before it adjourns.

Internal Revenue Bureau,

The new organization of the Internal Revenue Bureau went into effect to day. The various departments are divided into three permanent branches.

Miscellaneous.

A very large crowd was at the President's mansion to-day.

The Cabinet met at noon. All were present but Borie.

About one hundred clerks have been discharged from the Third Auditor's office.

Forty new appointments have been made, of whom, two are colored. One is Robert Douglas, son of Frederick Douglas.

The rush of visitors at the appointments of the Treasury Department to day, was intolerable.

The Journal's special says the President informed Senators that he would send no more appointments after to day

The Committee on Foreign Relations have agreed to report adversely in the case of Pile for the Brazilian mission; Carlisle for Stockholm; and Russell for Ecuador. It was decided to report favorably on J. Russell Jones for Belgium.

President Grant made a personal issue with the Committee in the case of Jones. All other nominations for the missions were agreed to.

The Committee on Commerce have agreed to report adversely to five Consular nominations.

Senator Ross, in a speech to-day, said the President told him that any man who served for the last eighteen months under Andrew Johnson was a Republican and could not hold office under him.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The Controller of the Currency has issued a notice that the National Banks forward immediately, in latest form of blanks, a statement of the condition of the banks on the 17th of April.

Rabbi Sneeihahn, in an interview with the President to-day, asked his attention to the deplorable condition of the Israelites in Palestine who possess no civil or political rights and are deprived of the protection of representatives of civilized nations which Christians enjoy, and prayed him to allow them in the hour of need to seek refuge under the American flag. The President replied briefly and courteously promised to examine into their grievances.

CHICAGO, April 20.—The Metallic Cartridge Company of Bridgeport, Conn., has received an order for ten millions of cartridges for breech loading rifles.

The Republican's special says Motley leaves for England, May 19th. Gen. Badeau, Secretary of Legation, will probably go at the same time.

The Committee on Ways and Means will meet at New York, May 12th. After several weeks in the Eastern cities, they will go west to San Francisco.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The National Executive Committee of the Union League will meet at the St. Nicholas, New York, June 30th.

CHICAGO, April 20.—The State Asylum for the Blind, at Jacksonville, was burned to-day; loss, $50,000. All the furniture was saved and the inmates escaped.

A St. Louis special says the jury in the Supreme Court has rendered a decision confirming John Maguire's title to sixteen acres in northern part of the city. The property is worth a million and a half; nearly all occupied.

BALTIMORE, April 20.—In the case of Kimberly vs. Butler, the same questions were at issue as those before the Superior Court of Baltimore, namely, freedom from arrest as a member of Congress, and whether a writ in a civil suit amounts to an arrest. Those points were argued to-day on demurrer to plea in abatement. The Court reserved its decision till to morrow, but intimated that the case could go on the plea of limitation under the law of Congress; that cause of action had not occurred within two years before suit was brought. The plaintiff demurred and his demurrer was overruled. Plaintiff then filed a special application that cause of action is not within the description of cases mentioned in the act of Congress. The defendant demurred to this replication, General Butler opening the argument; Court then adjourned till to-morrow.

BOSTON, April 20.—A large meeting was held to-night to establish a reform league. Edward Atkinson was chosen to preside. Speeches were made by Lieut. Governor John W. Chandler, Wm Lloyd Garrison, Jas. A. Dupee and others. Resolutions embodying the objects of the meeting were adopted.

NEW YORK, April 20.—The steamer Arizona, from Aspinwall, is below.

The Alabama Claim Treaty.

NEW YORK, April 20.—The London Times says England has gone to the extreme of concession in the matter of the Alabama claims. She had agreed to refer everything except her own honor to the arbitration of a mixed commission, and gave the Americans every opportunity to assert their claims by providing that commissions should sit at Washington. Nothing further could be conceded except absolute submission to every demand the Americans might choose to make This treaty was the work of the Americans themselves. If they now set it aside, our duty will be simply to abstain from all overtures. Let proposals for future negotiations come from the American Government. The Times has not the smallest belief that President Grant contemplates a course so unfriendly and offensive as a downright demand for damages. It thinks that Motley will be instructed to open negotiations for another treaty, etc.

Stanley, in his Glasgow speech, said that whatever happens, England has put herself unmistakably in the right, notwithstanding the failure of the recent treaty. He could not take a gloomy view of their relations. Questions affecting external relations which involve issues of war or peace are incomparably greater than any other. We may quarrel among ourselves and make up again without much damage if not much gain, but in international affairs, we should show the world a united front. He would feel it his duty, should diplomatic difficulties arise, to conscientiously endeavor to strengthen the hands of the foreign Minister, whoever he might be.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Chandler, in his speech in the Senate to-day, read extracts from his former speeches, to show that he originated the position now assumed by the Committee on Foreign relations. He insisted that had his advice been followed the Alabama claims would have been paid within thirty days. He said that England, like the French in the occupancy of Mexico, had staked the continuance of her empire in America on the successes of the rebellion. He denounced the conduct of England and Minister Johnson, also the tardiness of the Senate Committee in not taking earlier action. The speech was very bitter.

California Dispatch.

DOWNIEVILLE, April 21.—The drug store of Wm Hughes was entered by burglars last night, and his pockets rifled of about $40, without disturbing his slumbers

John Garnesset was killed this morning by being thrown from a refractory mule he was trying to ride through the streets The mule reared up and fell back with him, crushing him against a bench on the sidewalk He never spoke afterwards He leaves a wife and three children.

NEVADA

VIRGINIA, April 21.—From Gold Hill we learn that the fire in the mines is not extinguished, and so much gas escapes that little effective work has yet been done towards extinguishing it. The Yellow Jacket shaft has been reclosed. The Gold Hill firemen were, this afternoon, putting their hose down the Crown Point shaft, where they hope by forcing the hose mass above the fire, to smother it out. The fire is said to be where it was originally reported to be, near the Kentuck and Yellow Jacket line, above the 800 foot level.

Commissioner Leffler, just from the front, reports that the overland railroad will be completed within thirty days. A passenger who arrived yesterday, in eight days from Michigan, reports but twenty six hours staging between the two roads.

D. O. Mills, Hayward, Chas. E. McLane and others, left here at noon to-day, for Hamilton, via Reno and Elko

The weather is still cold; ice is making every night

A grand velocipede tournament took place on C street last evening. Vehicles participated, and created much amusement to the crowd of lookers on

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—The coroner's jury in the Derick case brought in a verdict last night of death from a gun shot wound, but were unable to determine whether the shot was fired by W. F. Edwards or Elizabeth Derick. Both the above named parties are under arrest.

A man named Allen Carr was Shanghaed last night by some sailor runners and carried aboard the vessel Geo B. M Cleilan The captain refused him as not being an able-bodied seaman, and ordered him ashore.
